

“Jodie was one of our brightest and best. She put everything into life and her dedication to her friends, her family, to Scouts and her community was incredible. When she represented us at the Royal Albert Hall at the Annual Festival of Remembrance we could not have hoped for a better ambassador for the movement. Now’s it’s our turn to remember her. I’m so proud to support the work of the Jodie Chesney Foundation. Reducing knife crime is one of the greatest challenges facing society today and we all have a part to play. Young people need hope, opportunities and places to go. They need a brighter future. We owe it to Jodie to make our streets a safer place. Let’s make a promise to Jodie to never give up until we get there.”
